Hong Kong has consistently been ranked atop the Fraser Institute's annual Economic Freedom of the World report since we began measuring economic freedom. This year, we are pleased to mark the global release of the 2008 Economic Freedom of the World report in Hong Kong with three very special events.

11:45 am – 2:00 pm

Lunch and Press Conference

Global Release of the 2008 Economic Freedom of the World Report, published by the Economic Freedom Network of the Fraser Institute. Join us to acknowledge Hong Kong's longstanding achievement and success as one of the world's most economically free regions.

Speaker: Dr. Mark Mullins, Executive Director, Fraser Institute

2:00 – 3:30 pm

Economic Freedom Symposium

As China marks the 30th anniversary of its economic reforms and open door policy, this symposium offers an opportunity to explore the topic: Economic Freedom and China's Future.

Speakers:

Professor Y.C. Richard Wong
Founding Director, The Hong Kong Centre for Economic Research, University of Hong Kong

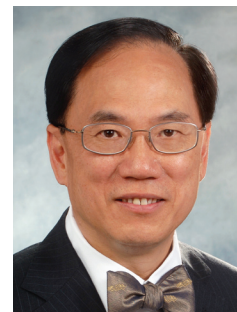

Professor Francis T. Lui, Director
Center for Economic Development
Hong Kong University of Science & Technology

6:00 – 9:00 pm

Celebrate Hong Kong Gala Dinner

Join us for a luxurious evening honouring the men and women who helped build Hong Kong's economic success and their dedication to economic freedom. With special guest speakers, this event will be a chance for high level individuals from Hong Kong's business community and society to come together to network and toast the region's accomplishments.

Remarks from: Mr. Donald Tsang, Chief Executive
Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China

Mr. Donald Tsang
